

Sinclair Broadcasting is in breach of its privilege of using our airwaves by forcing its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before a national election.

They are in violation of FCC regulations, and it is mandatory for the FCC to take some action.

No station or group has a right to violate the public interest like this.

My question is, what will the FCC be doing to protect the rights of the people?